

COME BE PART OF THE JSO TEAM!

Johnstown Symphony Orchestra Production Team

WHO WE'RE LOOKING FOR:

- Hard-working, creative, flexible team-members who want to learn and do what it takes to put on a professional JSO concert event and be part of making it happen!
- Team-members with a can-do attitude
- 8 JSYO students will be chosen
- A minimum of 2 students from the team will be selected for each concert to help the Orchestra Manager at the dress rehearsal and the concert.

FLIP THE PAGE OVER TO LEARN ABOUT PERKS AND RESPONSIBILITIES!

YOU WILL LEARN:

- To interact with and address the needs of JSO pro orchestra and soloists before, during and after performances with professionalism
- How to set-up the stage for a performance
- To prepare music stands with parts for rehearsal
- The behind-the-scenes world of a professional orchestra
- To support the Orchestra Manager in her work
- To cue musicians for entrances
- How to support the audio/visual tech components of the performance
- How "house management" works
- To be ready for anything-- every concert is different!

THE PERKS:

- a JSO Production Team polo shirt to wear for work, identifying you as a member of the team
- 1 ticket for each concert you work
- 6 service hours per concert
- The chance to be part of the JSO team!

For more information and to apply,
contact Orchestra Manager Beth Pile
at bpile@johnstownsymphony.org